FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Seniors Celebrate Start of Spring with Festive Tea Party
Wesley Enhanced Living at Maple Village residents attend ‘Ladies Spring Tea’

Hatboro, Pa., April 7, 2008 – Female residents of Wesley Enhanced Living at Maple Village, a continuing care retirement community, will celebrate the beginning of the spring season with the sixth annual Ladies Spring Tea on Wednesday, April 9. This event will feature the tastes, sights and sounds of spring, and provide residents with an opportunity for socialization and enjoyment.

“We always strive to provide our residents with fun activities that enhance their lives,” said Jeff Petty, president and CEO of Wesley Enhanced Living. “The Ladies Spring Tea is a great social outlet and gives our residents a chance to meet new people.”

Residents will wear their finest spring dresses and hats for this afternoon tea. The first hour of the Ladies Spring Tea will be spent socializing, followed by story readings by local entertainer Jill Koehler. This event is hosted by the Activities and Hospitality Committee of Wesley Enhanced Living at Maple Village and is a favorite springtime activity for residents.
